

MEMO FOR THE RECORD

28 Oct 68

Subj: Call fm Col Wyatt, SAC Hqs

At 1250 hours, 28 Oct 68, Col Wyatt, called Lt Marano and wanted to know if we (Lt Marano) had received any indication of any other reports from Minot. Lt Marano informed him that we haven't received any other reports from that area. We do get a copy of reports in accordance with AFR 80-17. Lt Marano told Col Wyatt that Col Werlich at Minot was doing the investigation. Col Werlich had called the Duty Officer at Wright-Patterson who in turned called Lt Marano and he (Lt M) called Col Quintanilla and they both called Col Werlich back and Col Werlich said he would do the investigation. Col Wyatt said he was trying to determine whether ADC had any known phenomena on radar. Col Wyatt asked Lt Marano if we ever participated in any investigations. Very seldom do we ever go out in the field. As far as Lt Marano was concerned Col Werlich was quite competent and he didn't feel that Col Werlich needed any additional help at this time. Col Wyatt said he gave Col Werlich the guidance and he guessed that Col Werlich got our telephone number out of the regulation. Col Wyatt said he felt that we couldn't give him any more information so he ended the conversation.
